

Lydia Rueda Gil

Lydia has a Bachelor degree in Translation and Interpretation and a Masters degree from the University of Malaga in Teaching English as a Foreign Language. She has developed her career in various public centres in the Andalusian educative system and in language institutes as a teacher and as a trainer for level exams. Additionally, she has worked as a translator (En>Sp; Sp>En) in the tourism and leisure sector for online travel companies. Since 2014 she works at Cervantes Escuela Internacional where she develops and continues her specialization in the Spanish as a Foreign Language field. Currently, she combines her Spanish as a Foreign Language teaching at Cervantes Escuela Internacional with the teaching of English and French at other study centres in Malaga city.