

Biodata Manuel Martínez Clavijo

Manuel has a Bachelor Degree in Hispanic Philology from the University of Granada and in Audiovisual Communication from the University of Malaga. In 2005 he began working as a teacher in Spanish for Foreigners in different schools in Granada and Malaga, an area in which he continues his training with participation in different courses and workshops given by Instituto Cervantes.

Aside from his teaching work he has undertaken audiovisual work for various organizations.

From 2010 he has been a part of the Cervantes Escuela Internacional team where he combines his teaching work with the organization of workshops and managing extracurricular activities. He coordinates and directs the cinema workshops in Cervantes Escuela Internacional. He has taught workshops in the training the teachers course of Cervantes Escuela Internacional. He is a co-author of the New Curriculum Plan of Cervantes Escuela Internacional.