

Biodata Patricia Santervás González

Patricia has a Bachelor Degree in Hispanic Philology and in Literature Theory and Comparative Literature from the University of Valladolid, and has taught Spanish for Foreigners in various schools in Granada and Malaga. She has worked in Cervantes Escuela Internacional since 2005 where she is now Academic Director and Director of the Department of Didactic

Material.

Additionally, she has translated Italian texts to Spanish including university theses and is continually investing in lifelong education in the area of Spanish for Foreigners by taking courses from Instituto Cervantes, the University of Valladolid, different associations of Schools of Spanish for Foreigners such as FEDELE or ACEM, and other schools specialized in the teaching of Spanish for Foreigners.

As a teacher trainer, teacher coordinator and creator of didactic material, she has participated as a speaker at different courses organized by Instituto Cervantes, TODOELE round tables, in ASELE and in the World Conference of Spanish Teachers (COMPROFES). She has taught didactic courses and workshops in conferences, Instituto Cervantes and European schools. She is also founder and coordinator of the National Forum of Cervantes Escuela Internacional since 2011. She is a member of the team of external reviewers of MARCOELE and DELE examiner, and has finished her first book on the teaching of Spanish for Foreigners: Tras la pista published by EDELSA.