DELE COURSES

The DELE are official certificates, accrediting the levels of competence and mastery of the Spanish language, which are awarded by the Cervantes Institute on behalf of the Ministry of Education, Culture and Sport of Spain.

DELE B2

The B2 Spanish Diploma (DELE) accredits the holder with the language capacity to understand the main points of complex oral and written texts, even though they relate to abstract topics, they are in different variations of Spanish or have a technical character, especially if they relate to specialized knowledge to which they have had access; to interact with all types of speakers with a sufficient level of fluency and spontaneity, in such a way that the communication does not involve difficulty for either party; and to be able to produce clear and detailed texts about different topics, including those that require logical analysis, debate or defense of a particular point of view.

The B2 level exam consists of four parts:

Group 1

Reading comprehension test (70 min)

Written expression and interaction test (80 min)

Group 2

Listening Comprehension test (40 min)

Oral expression and interaction test (20 min + 20 min of preparation)

The final grade is either PASS or FAIL. To obtain the certificate a minimum grade of 60 points out of 100 in the exam is required, as long as you obtain at least 30 points out of 50 in each group of the tests.

THE COURSE

This course has a duration of four weeks. In each week you will work on a skill.
