OUR SCHOOL LOCATION

The school is located in Málaga, an ideal destination for group language stays. It is a safe city, well connected, and situated in the heart of Andalusia, offering a wide variety of tourist activities.

With its pleasant climate, beautiful beaches, and lively cultural and leisure scene—featuring more than 40 museums—Málaga is the perfect place for students of Spanish.

Málaga is also a multicultural city with traditions that go back centuries. Throughout the year it celebrates many festivals, such as Carnival, the Feria, and Semana Santa (Holy Week). All of this makes the city a wonderful place to visit at any time of the year.

Art and flavor—this is what defines Málaga. The city is known for its diverse gastronomy and outstanding seafood, all within the rich culinary tradition of Andalusia.

Málaga Airport is the most important in southern Spain, offering numerous national and international connections.

Cervantes E.I. is located in the charming neighborhood of Pedregalejo, just 10 minutes east of Málaga's city center. The beach is only 100 meters from the school, giving students endless opportunities for leisure, water sports, and relaxation.

The open-air bars and restaurants create a lively atmosphere and serve a wide variety of excellent fresh seafood.

TEACHING SPANISH SINCE 1986

Cervantes Escuela Internacional, with 40 years of experience in teaching Spanish as a foreign language, boasts top-tier interactive teaching materials. Coupled with the effectiveness of our teaching methods and our rich socio-cultural program, we offer an exceptional linguistic and cultural immersion experience.

Moreover, we provide our students with personalized services within a delightful ambiance, ensuring that their stay becomes an unforgettable journey.

Cervantes Escuela Internacional is accredited by the Instituto Cervantes and is a founding member of leading organizations in the field of Spanish as a foreign language. Our reputation and commitment to quality in education are underscored by the trust of over 45,000 students worldwide who have chosen our school to learn Spanish.

With over 15 years of experience in training both native and non-native ELE teachers, we employ a communicative approach, aiming to empower students to communicate in Spanish as quickly as possible. We understand that high motivation is crucial for mastering a foreign language.

Our teaching strategies include:

- A playful component
- Constant development of our exclusive teaching materials
- Integration of language skills
- A strong emphasis on the cultural component
- Recognizing the importance of visual aids in language learning

Within our teaching team, you'll find DELE examiners, authors of Spanish textbooks, and experts with more than two decades of experience in teaching Spanish.

Experience the art of learning Spanish at our school. We strive to ensure a diverse mix of nationalities in our class groups to encourage students to communicate in Spanish right from day one.
